Crescent, OR – The Red Fire is burning within the Diamond Peak Wilderness of the Deschutes National Forest, on the southwest slope of Redtop Mountain. The fire continues being managed under a full suppression strategy. Public and firefighter safety is the highest priority in managing this fire.

Yesterday's Activities – Crews continued work on the fuel break line protecting the homes on the northwest side of Crescent Lake. The trees and vegetation are being trucked out of the fire area for storage and disposal.

Today's Activities – Work continues today on the shaded fuel break between Crescent Lake and Summit Lake. Crews are clearing the break area of undergrowth and leaving trees spaced appropriately to serve as a fireline buffer.

Weather and Smoke – An offshore trough will move east across the area today bringing a slight chance of showers. A low-pressure system will develop off the pacific northwest coast by Thursday and is expected to bring wet chilly weather across the fire area by Friday. <https://fire.airnow.gov/>.
